Location: Ideally situated in the heart of Taormina, on one side overlooking the Mediterranean sea and inland towards Mount Etna. .

Exterior: A historical stone monastery dating back to the 14th century. A Grandiose structure. .

Lobby: The lobby is of medium size, very traditional in decor with statues and ornaments on display with antique furniture. .

Rooms: All the rooms are large and in very good condition. Again traditional and luxurious in style and decor with high ceilings, painted walls, antique, traditional furniture and stunning views. .

General: The touches of class & elegance throughout the hotel could be listed at great length,. But suffice to say this is probably the best hotel in Sicily.
