DAY 01, FRI 10/19: USA TO NICE

DAY 02, SAT 10/20: NICE [D]

Afternoon arrival at the capital of the French Riviera, Nice. The French Riviera, also known as the Cote d'Azur is the sun and fun playground of Europe, filled with million dollar yachts and wall to wall, scantily clad tanned bodies. We begin our stay here with a brief city tour. Tonight you'll dine in one of Nice's finest seafood restaurants.

DAY 03, SUN 10/21: NICE—OLD TOWN-MONTE CARLO - NICE [B,D]

This morning we will visit the only Russian Orthodox onion-skinned domed cathedral in France that rivals the best in Moscow! It is a stunning, unusual and rarely-seen-by-tourist cathedral. Next you'll visit the important Chagall Museum to view his jewel-like paintings. It would be most difficult for anyone not to be moved by this beautiful collection.

After lunch we will go on a walking tour of Nice's Old Town where one feels transported to Florence or Venice and a reminder that Nice was once a part of Italy. With narrow streets curving in irregular fashion between old buildings with red-tile roofs, this could be almost any medieval village of the region. The streets are packed with shops, small restaurants, food, meat, produce, pasta, clothes, gifts, anything and everything. You can buy wine by the bottle or the barrel (bring your own container) and an amazing variety of fresh-made ravioli and other pasta. The Cours Saleya has a daily flower market and a food market in the mornings. There are scores of stands. The length of the Cours Saleya is sided by the low buildings separating the "Cours" from the seaside. Once housing the fishermen's catch, they have given way largely to seafood restaurants. The other side of the Cours Saleya is lined by terrace cafés, lovely old buildings and the grand Prefecture. You will conclude your walk with the Museum of Modern Art, four stories of the best of modern European art. Here you'll find old favorites, Warhol, Dine and Rauschenberg plus many new European artists. Spend the rest of the day freely exploring the Roman ruins, the Matisse Museum, the Museum of Naïve Art, or some of the many palaces or churches or simply sit at one of the many cafes and watch the beautiful people. Tonight you're off to the bright lights, fast action and beautiful people that typifies Monte Carlo & its famous casino.

DAY 04, MON 10/22: NICE - ARTIST'S HOMES – NICE [B]

Our morning begins with a visit to the villa/cottage of the Impressionist painter, Renoir. Here Renoir spent his final days painting his famous canvases and the spirit and atmosphere is still warmly impressionistic. Next we visit Biot, a very picturesque and popular 2500 years old medieval village. It sits on a hilltop only 4 km from the Mediterranean beaches and it retains much of its natural charm and the quiet feeling of the 16th century. We are here to view the works of Frenand Leger in the chateau where he created them, now a museum devoted solely to his art. Antibes was a Greek fortified town named Antipolis in the 5th century BC, and later a Roman town, and always an active port for trading along the Mediterranean. Today it's an attractive and active town, the natural beauty remains in the old town, with the ramparts along the sea and the long, arched protective wall along the port. There are plenty of little streets for exploring, restaurants of all types and prices, and lots of shops. The Picasso museum is in the Château Grimaldi, Picasso worked here in the chateau in 1946, and his studio is part of the museum. The collection includes an enormous amount of his work, including Mediterranean marine and mythological life done here, and ceramics done in nearby Vallauris in 1948-49.
